

--PRESS RELEASE--

FileYourTaxes.com is accepting returns for the 2001 tax filing season.

January 10, 2000

Oxnard, CA-

Atilla M. Taluy announced that FileYourTaxes.com is officially commencing the 2001 tax filing season today, by the accepting the submissions of 2000 tax year personal income tax information from the taxpayer community.

Atilla said, "We are very happy and proud to be in the position to be availing our premiere OnLine service to the all our users with many new and additional features. In step with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the market desires, we have added a significant number of new forms to our site. Also, we intend to provide Arizona, North Carolina, Oklahoma, and Oregon in addition to California and Illinois as supported relevant to filing personal income taxes. We will be announcing our business suite soon.

FileYourTaxes.com will warehouse Federal returns until the time that the IRS will accept transmission. The California returns will be transmitted in real time to the new FTB portal as outlined in our press release on or about October 17, 2000. We are very excited to be the first, and so far, the only OnLine filer to transact with the FTB's state of the art Portal."

Further elaborating on the new amenities, Atilla continued saying, "FileYourTaxes.com will provide financial institution products OnLine through Santa Barbara Bank and Trust (SBBT). The products offered will be Refund Anticipation Loans (RALs) and refund Transfers(RTs). Both SBBT and FileYourTaxes.com are industry partners to the IRS in the Debt Indicator pilot program. The Self Selected PIN option is extended to all qualified practitioners and taxpayers this season. Therefore, those filing through FileYourTaxes.com may enjoy a completely paperless return"

Based on their repeated requests from our practitioner clients and institutional users, we developed and are offer an OnLine affiliate program. FileYourTaxes.com is providing a turnkey solution, up through the hosting of the client/user websites with such applications." He closed his comments, expressing the FileYourTaxes.com's gratitude by saying, "We thank all our clients, individual or otherwise and the , for partnering with us in our tremendous growth by being loyal users of our system and referring their friends and relatives to us, trusting our capabilities and our adherence to our policies of privacy. Unlike others, it is our unchanged desire not to sell, exchange or barter the information that the taxpayers share with us. We look forward to serve the taxpayers, the practitioners and the related institutions, with security, anytime, anywhere there is Internet access."
