

Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer

Surviving spouses and legal representatives for someone who died during the year may file a return on the deceased's behalf. Write "deceased" in large letters across the top of the return, check the box after the deceased person's name and write the date of death. Additionally, you must sign the return and write "filing as surviving spouse" or "filing as legal representative" by your signature.

Complete the form below only if the return results in a refund, and mail with the deceased's income tax return for the year. You must also submit a copy of the death certificate with this form.

Claim for refund cannot be processed if this information is not complete. Death certificate must accompany this completed form.
