

Purpose - Use Form NC-EDU to contribute to the NC Education Endowment Fund.

To make a contribution with your income tax return, simply enclose Form NC-EDU and your payment with your tax return. If you owe additional tax and would also like to make a contribution to the Fund, you may write one check and enclose the check with both Form NC-EDU and your income tax payment voucher. For example, if you owe additional income tax on Form D-400, Individual Income Tax Return, you may write one check for the combined amount of the contribution and the additional income tax, and enclose the check with both Form NC-EDU and Form D-400V. Make all checks payable to "North Carolina Department of Revenue." Your election to contribute to the Fund cannot be changed after you file your tax return.

Additional contributions to the Fund may be made by mailing your contribution directly to the following address. Make check payable to "North Carolina Department of Public Instruction" and indicate either on the check or in an attached note that it is a contribution for the NC Education Endowment Fund.
