FileYourTaxes.com Public Service Announcement

FREE ONLINE TAX SERVICE FOR CALIFORNIANS

FileYourTaxes.com offers FREE Federal and California State Income Tax Returns to all California Residents during the March 29th through 30th, as a Public Service.

FileYourTaxes.com will provide absolutely FREE Federal and California State personal income tax return construction and eFiling to all California taxpayers, who are filing resident returns for the tax year 2006 and are providing California addresses on their income tax returns. Taxpayers do not need to purchase anything or follow any special steps other than completing the tax filing process on March 29th or March 30th. The taxpayers will enjoy the same system capabilities and limitations that are offered to the fee based users as part of this public service offering. There are no other limitations such as income, profession type, filing status, etc., to qualify for this offer.

This public service offer will also be available through the California Franchise Tax Board (FTB) website.

This additional public service is provided as a part of our FreeTax by FileYourTaxes.com program. FileYourTaxes.com also offers other free filing programs, including those through the Federal-Free File Alliance, and those through partnership with the FTB, on the FTB's website, making free returns and eFiling available to low income and underserved California taxpayers

The applicable rules for the FREE service qualification are as follows and these rules will be strictly enforced.

The public service offer is valid, beginning at 12:01 AM Thursday March 29, 2007, and ending 11:59 PM Friday March 30, 2007.

- ? The qualifying return has to be started and completed and signed-off-on during these times. The returns that were started before the beginning time and those that are completed after the ending time will not qualify for this public service offer.
- ? Paper returns or paper return copy fees, Bank Product (RALS, etc.) related fees, and other items sold separately are not covered with this public service offer and are not required for qualification for the free offer.
- ? There is no redeemable cash value to this public service offer and the offer is void in all jurisdictions where it may be prohibited by law.

FileYourTaxes.com is a proud member of the Free File Alliance, LLC, providing FREE tax returns and eFiling to millions of American taxpayers, in partnership with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). FileYourTaxes.com is an IRS and Franchise Tax Board approved OnLine Tax Filing Service that has been providing tax return construction and eFiling since the first OnLine returns were filed in 1996. FileYourTaxes.com uses the FTB's high technology, Secure Web Internet Transfer System (SWIFT) to file Personal California Income Tax Returns, and transmits to IRS using the TELNET-S secure protocol for the Federal returns.
